

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

GENERAL

- These terms and conditions form the basis of the contract between us, [name of removal/storage contractor or alternatively a reference to the removal contractor named on the quotation] and you the customer. It defines and sets out the rights, obligations, and responsibilities of both you and us under this contract. It is a legally binding contract and so it is important that both parties know where they stand. It does include provisions that limit our responsibilities and potential liability to you. We specifically draw your attention to these.
- Where we use the word "you" or "your" it means the customer; "we", "us" or "our" means us as named above. Where we use the word "goods" this refers to the items that are to be subject to the removal or storage, pursuant to this contract.
- It is important that you read and understand the terms and conditions that will apply to this contract before signing. If there is anything that you do not understand or do not wish to agree to, then please discuss it with us before signing and returning the quotation. Only enter into this contract if you wish to be bound by the terms and conditions set out below.
- You accept and acknowledge that these terms and conditions include serious restrictions of our potential liability to you.
- We recommend you arrange insurance to cover your goods. We are able to arrange such insurance upon request. This insurance will form a separate Agreement between you and the Insurers and separate conditions will apply. Please refer to clauses 37-50 which detail the limit of our Liability for loss or damage.

However where you seek to amend the quotation we shall also be able to reject the alterations and not undertake the work for you, or to re-quote for it subject to your proposed amendments.

If these details change you must inform us. If we contact you in writing using the details you have provided we will be entitled to assume that you have duly received any communication from us.
- You shall be responsible for any losses, expenses or other costs incurred by us arising from your failure to attend to any of the matters set out in these clauses unless that loss was in fact caused by our negligence.

POSTPONEMENT AND CANCELLATION

- By agreeing to undertake the removal or storage we incur costs in preparing for it and also lose the opportunity to undertake further work that would use the same resources. Because of this we may suffer loss if you cancel this contract or postpone its performance. The amount we will potentially lose will depend on when the cancellation &/or postponement occurs.
- If you cancel or postpone more than 14 days before the removal date then there shall be no charge payable by you.

PAYMENT OF OUR CHARGES

- Clauses 31-34 set out the basis on which our charges must be paid, unless we agree otherwise.
- You will pay for all removal services, at the agreed rate, prior to the commencement of the removal. This term is important to the contract and unless we are paid with cleared funds prior to the commencement of the removal we shall be able to treat the removal as cancelled on the date of removal.

 - sub-contracting all or part of the job to another removal or storage company; (b) choosing the route we think is most effective; and
 - using such vehicles, containers and methods of transport &/or storage as we believe are appropriate.
- This does not however affect our responsibilities under this contract to take care of your goods and to provide the services within the appropriate timescales.

- Under no circumstances shall our liability to you exceed £40 per item lost or damaged. Furthermore under no circumstances shall our liability to you for loss and /damage exceed £50,000.
- If goods are lost or are damaged beyond repair then our liability will be, at most, the value of the goods lost or damaged beyond repair. The value of the goods, for the purpose of this contract, shall be their current replacement cost, including due allowance in respect of age, wear and tear and depreciation. All liability and compensation for loss and/or damage shall be calculated on this basis and not on a "new for old" basis.
- If goods are damaged but can be repaired then our liability will be, at most, the repair cost plus the amount that the goods have reduced in value, if at all, because of the repair.
- In respect of any particular item our liability will not under any circumstances exceed the value of the item in question as defined by clause 42 above.

- If we do agree in accordance with clause 9, to remove or store any of the goods set out at clause 8 then our liability for loss and damage to them shall be limited as set out in clause 10.

- We will not be liable for any damage whether to premises, property, or the goods as a result of moving goods under your express instruction, and against our advice where moving the goods in the manner instructed will inevitably cause damage.
- In any event we shall only be liable for damage to premises or property, other than the goods being submitted for removal or storage, where such damage arises due to negligence on our part.
- Where damage to premises or property, other than the goods being submitted for removal or storage, does occur we must ask that you inform us immediately and note the damage on the worksheet or delivery receipt. In the absence of such notification we will not be able to accept any liability for the damage.

- Furthermore we may sell all or some of your goods to recover any unpaid charges. We can only do this after giving you 30 days written notice that we intend to do so. If you do not pay the charges, and the proceeds from the sale are greater than the amount you owe us, we will pay you any excess amount after deducting the cost of selling the goods.

ADVICE, INFORMATION AND THE BASIS OF AGREEMENT

- In this document we set out the terms and conditions of the contract between us. Please do not rely on promises or claims, written or verbally made, that contradict the terms and conditions of this document. In the event of any apparent contradiction between these terms and conditions and a promise or claim made please refer to us for clarification.

LAW AND JURISDICTION

- This contract shall be subject to exclusive English law and jurisdiction.

EXTRA CONDITIONS THAT APPLY TO THE STORAGE OF GOODS

- If you have failed to provide an address in accordance with clause 24 or if you fail to respond to our correspondence then we shall be entitled to publish notices in an area from which the goods were removed. The publication of such notice shall be accepted as valid communication with you.
- It is important that we both know what you have in store. Where we prepare an inventory of the goods taken into store and this is forwarded to you this must be checked. You must inform us as soon as possible of any inaccuracies. It shall be assumed that if you do not bring any inaccuracies to our attention within 7 days that you are in agreement with the contents of the inventory. The 7 day period can be extended if you request a time extension within 7 day period and the same is confirmed in writing by us. We will not unreasonably refuse to grant such an extension of time.
- We reserve the right to review our storage charges periodically. We will inform you of any change in the applicable rates by giving you notice in writing not less than 2 months before the change in rates. The new rates will then apply from the end of that 2 month period.
- We reserve the right to terminate the storage contract by giving you not less than 3 months notice in writing. If the goods have not been collected by you, or on your behalf, or delivered to you or to your order, by the time the storage contract terminates then the goods will thereafter only be held entirely at your risk and we will have no liability for the same.
- If you wish to terminate the storage contract you may do so by giving us not less than 14 days notice in writing. Storage charges will then be payable up to the end of the notice period or the date on which the goods are removed, whichever is the later. All charges must be paid up to date before the goods can be released. Once the charges are paid we will endeavour to release the goods at a time that is convenient to you.
- If you decide to collect the goods rather than having them delivered then we reserve the right to charge a reasonable hand out charge for handing them over. You are reminded that our responsibility for the goods ends in accordance with clause 47. We must stress the importance of goods being properly checked by you on delivery or handing over to you or your representative.

EXTRA CONDITIONS THAT APPLY TO FOREIGN REMOVALS

- The following terms and conditions apply only where the goods are destined for or are received from a place outside the United Kingdom
- We will accept liability only for loss or damage to goods when it occurs whilst they are in our actual possession. For the avoidance of any doubt goods will be deemed to remain in our possession when the carrying vehicle is being carried on a ferry whether the vehicle's crew are actually in the vehicle or not. In such circumstances our liability will be ascertained as if it were a domestic removal. If the loss or damage occurs whilst the goods are in possession of another party, such as a shipping line, we will not be liable and you will have to pursue any claim against that party.
- Where we engage an international transport operator, shipping company or airline, to convey your goods to or from a place, port or airport, we do so on your behalf and the contract with that carrier shall be subject to any terms and conditions set out by that carrier.
- The carrier referred to at clause 71(a) and (b) may restrict his liability by reference to contractual terms and conditions and international conventions. These may severely restrict the potential liability that the carrier has to you.
- Furthermore you may become liable for General Average contribution (that is the costs incurred to preserve the carrying vessel and cargo in certain circumstances), salvage costs and costs of forward transmission.
- We are therefore strongly recommended to arrange adequate marine/transit insurance cover over the goods. This is your sole responsibility and we will not in any way accept liability if you fail to arrange adequate or appropriate insurance cover over the goods. We can arrange suitable cover on request and on payment of the required premium.
- We will not accept liability for goods confiscated, seized or removed by Customs Authorities, or similar bodies and Government Agencies other than in circumstances where such confiscation, seizure or removal occurs due to our negligence.

GENERAL

- The provisions contained in this contract are considered fair and reasonable by the parties but if any provision shall be found to be unenforceable but would be valid if any part of it were deleted or modified, the provision shall apply with such modifications as may be necessary to make it valid and effective.
